HOC SIGNO FORTUNA

BALTIMORE THURSDAY, Oct. 19, 1820.

THIS DAY,

The drawing of the Virginia Navigation Lottery, 2d Class, will commence at Norfolk—this lottery contains only 8000 tickets—the Capital Prizes are 15,000 dolls—2 of 5,000—15 of 1000 dolls. &c &c. Tickets only Eleven Dollars each—and Shares in proportion, to be had by personal application, or by Order, addressed to P. I. & M. I. COHEN, Sec'ys to the Managers, Norfolk, Va.

Small Investments,

In the Cathedral Church Lottery now drawing, may be productive of splendid results—the risk being trifling:

Whole ticket, price only $20, may produce $40,000
Half ticket, price only $10 may produce $20,000
Quarter ticket, price only $5, may produce $10,000
Fifth ticket, price only $4, may produce $8,000
Eighth ticket, price only $2½, may produce $5,000
Tenth ticket, price only $2, may produce $4,000

Persons not having yet made their investments should do so while the great prizes still remain in the wheel—the most prompt attention paid at COHEN'S OFFICE, to all Orders whether for whole tickets or the smallest shares.

Prizes from Cohen's Office.

We noticed in a Postscript to the last number of the Gazette, the success of our distant correspondents. In addition to which, we have to observe that a part of No. 10,373, a prize of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, is owned by a gentleman in New-Orleans, and a part by a gentleman in Wilmington, N. C.—It will be remembered that No. 2,640, a prize of $500, drawn in the Cathedral Lottery last Wednesday, is owned by a gentleman in Charleston, S. C.—and that No. 3,343, a prize of $500, drawn on same day, is owned by a gentleman in Augusta, Geo.—the whole furnishing a further proof of the success attending adventurers in their purchases from COHEN'S OFFICE.

The Crisis approaches.

Important Memoranda—On Wednesday next, (6th drawing) the first drawn number in the Cathedral Church Lottery will be entitled to TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS agreeably to the Scheme.—On the Wednesday following, which will be the Seventh Drawing, the first drawn Number will be entitled to TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS—In a few days after the magnificent prize of FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS will be drawn:—besides which, it will be recollected that the prize of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS and numerous others of importance are yet floating in the wheel, and liable to be drawn the very next day.—Lose no time therefore in forwarding Orders, without delay, to COHEN'S OFFICE, where more Capital Prizes have been obtained than at any other Office in America.

Captain Blackwell, of the brig Hyperion, arrived at this port in 32 days from Helvoet Sluys, informs, that in the British Channel he spoke a ship from London, having left there the 11th of September. The captain of the ship informed him that the trial of the queen was still progressing; that the crown had completed its evidence, and witnesses on the part of the queen were examining. As far as the examination had been entered into, the evidence in behalf of the crown had been completely invalidated, and there was little doubt but the queen would be acquitted

The Museum of the Professor of Surgery, in variety, excellence and number of preparations, natural and morbid, is far superior to any other in America.

The splendid Chymical and Philosophical Apparatus, lately imported from France and England, and the Mineralogical collection afford the Chymical and Mineralogical Professor ample means of treating the various subjects of his course.

The Faculty of Medicine anxious that the School of Physick in the University of Maryland should offer facilities equal to any other establishment in the United States, have determined to finish the present splendid buildings, and to add elegant rooms for a Museum and various other accommodations.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.

The PRESIDENT, with his family, returned to the Seat of Government on Wednesday evening, from Virginia.

The POSTMASTER GENERAL returned to this city last evening, from a visit to the West.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

NATIONAL LOTTERY.

We understand that application was lately made to Ch. J. Marshall, for a writ of error from the Supreme Court of the U States to a judgment of one of our Superior Courts of Law, against a vender of Washington Lottery tickets—and that the chief justice, finding that it was the judgment of the highest court of law of Virginia, in which a decision of the cause could be had, and that the judgment was against a defence set up under the constitution and a law of the U States, allowed the writ of error, as a writ of right, under the 25th section of the judicial act of Congress.* We are told, that the Chief Justice gave no opinion on the merits, and declared he had none.—Thus the case will go up to the Supreme Court of the U States for their decision.

(*Laws U. S. 1 Vol. c. 29, s. 25. p. 63, 4)

Internal Improvement—The citizens of Maine have just completed a bridge, connecting Moose Island with the Main land at the Westerly outlet of the St Croix, in the town of Perry. It is 1200 feet in length—the depth of water in the channel is 18 feet at low and 43 feet at high water—length of posts 61 feet—cost 9600 dollars, exclusive of toll-house, &c. It is called Eastport Bridge.

Monument Lottery...The day fixed.

We have the pleasure to announce to our customers and the public, that the drawing of the 4th Class of the Washington Monument Lottery will take place and be completed on NEW-YEAR'S DAY.

No inducements can be wanting to encourage and promote the sales of tickets in this small but brilliant Scheme—the object of the lottery, alone is sufficient to elicit the patronage of the American people; but, regarding it in a pecuniary point of view, the despatch with which it is to be drawn, and magnitude of the prizes, are worthy the attention of the adventurer whose fate by the arrangement of the lottery will be decided IN ONE DAY.

THE CAPITAL PRIZES ARE,

$40,000—$10,000—$5,000, &c.

Adventurers should not delay sending on their Orders, tickets being now at the original price of Twenty Dollars, and Shares in the same proportion, but WILL BE ADVANCED to 22 dollars on Friday the 20th of the present month.

ORDERS from any part of the United States, (enclosing the Cash, or prize tickets in any of the present or late lotteries) post paid, will meet the same prompt attention as if on personal application.—Address

J. I. COHEN, Jr.

Sec'ry to the Managers—Baltimore.

Distant Adventurers

Who purchase from Cohen's Office, tickets or shares to the amount of Fifty Dollars, in either the Cathedral or the Monument lottery will be furnished with the "Register," which contains the Manager's Official Lists of all the drawings regularly as they occur. The adventurer at a distance will thus be enabled to ascertain the fate of his tickets as soon as drawn, and also to know the state of the wheel from time to time, as well as other relative lottery information satisfactory to be informed of

In presenting to the public another Lottery to provide funds for the completion of the WASHINGTON MONUMENT, the managers scarcely deem it necessary to appeal to the patriotism of their fellow citizens for their support and patronage, being well assured of the respect and veneration universally entertained for the illustrious name it bears, and of their ardent desire to see the noble monument, already so far advanced, finished. Were other motives for its encouragement to be sought, they would readily be found in the peculiar nature and novelty of the scheme, by which it will be perceived that the fate of the adventurer is to be determined IN ONE DAY, an advantage too obvious to require recommendation.
